

SCS CONTROL PANEL PC BUS

- PC control of searchlights.
- With the new automatic sweep function it is possible to carry out rescue operations by using the searchlights to sweep the surface for objects automatically. The crew can carry out other tasks, while the automatic sweep function scans the horizon as a preventive measure.

Spesification

The computer version contains all functions as the main control panel.

In addition there is available programmable automatic sweep functions to be defined by the user.

In addition, with the computer control the security level of the vessel can be increased by using the automatic sweep function.

Minimum requirements

SCS PC Operation Panel requires minimum an IBM-compatible PC with a Pentium 400 MHz processor, Windows 2000/NT/XP/Vista and a VGA monitor. It also need a TCP/IP Network with a static IP address in the range 192.168.1.50-70 with UPD port 2101 free for communication.

PC BUS

PC BUS is an Software application to control your searchlights

</glx/DesktopDefault.aspx?>